What'll You Have?

DRINK PAIRING DOESN'T HAVE TO BE CONFUSING. HERE'S HOW TO CHOOSE A FINE WINE, BEER, OR COCKTAIL TO COMPLEMENT YOUR HARD-EARNED GAME > By Jonathan Miles

VENISON

Rich and potent, cabernet sauvignon has long been the go-to varietal for big game. The 2008 Chateau Smith Cabernet ($20; charlessmithwines.com) adds subtlety to the mix, with lots of brawny elegance but also tenderloin-friendly nuance.
